

VOICE, ACTIVISM, & DEMOCRACY

Harriet Elliott Lecture Series

Wednesday, March 29, 2017 • 6:00pm • School of Education Building • Room 114
Lawrence Frey

Takin' it to the Streets & the Seats:

Communication Activism Research & Teaching for Social Justice

ASL Interpreter provided • Reception following event • Free parking available in Oakland Parking Deck

Thursday, March 30, 2017 • Curry Auditorium

9:30am – 10:45 am • Activism and Scholarship: Bringing Community Activism to Students

Lori Britt • Deliberative Democracy: Shaping Spaces That Give Citizens Voice in Public-Problem-Solving

Billie Murray • Crossing Lines: Navigating the Perils and Promises of Activist-Scholarship & Allyship

Armond Towns • What's this "Social Media" in Social Media Activism? Articulating Media & Antiracist Activism

11:00am – 12:15pm • Women in Greensboro: Communicating for Social Change

Valerie Warren • Community Activist & Community Engagement Director for Greensboro Participatory Budgeting

Mo Kessler • Community Activist & Renaissance Community Coop Board Member

Casey Thomas • Community Activist & Renaissance Community Coop Board Member

2:00pm – 3:15pm • Student Speakout • Led by Billie Murray

Disability accommodations for March 30th available upon request – contact Sonia Martin at smartin@uncg.edu by March 20th